Old Business:

The sign at the corner of South Depot and Walnut was discussed. It was suggested to use the new Louisville slogan and incorporate the logo used on the city trucks. It was agreed to market the new slogan/logo consistently in as many places as possible; signage, stationery, etc. Greg will check with the school's sign company and get a quote for the sign by Ash Grove. Jennifer is also checking with someone who may be able to paint the sign. The promotion of the slogan in conjunction with the logo will be passed to the marketing committee.
