Terri asked if anyone knew if the t-shirts sponsored by B.U.I.L.D. for the school kids were still being used and Jennifer confirmed they were used regularly.

The blue "welcome" flags have been put up by the city crew. Dee mentioned that a new American flag needs to be purchased for the pole at city hall.

B.U.I.L.D. has replaced this flag as needed in the past by either purchasing new or getting one donated.

Marketing Committee: Nancy McManis (chair)

Nancy reported through Dee that she is working on the grant applications for this year's upcoming events. She will turn them in on Friday of this week. The date for Ringing in the Season needs to be clarified.

Fundraising:

The fireworks stand has officially been turned over to the Ball Parents Association.

Community: Jennifer Galbraith (chair)

Jennifer reminded everyone that the April 3rd meeting will be a recruiting meeting. She has plans to put articles in the Cassgram and the Louisville newsletter. She's working on refreshments. Time change of the meeting was discussed, but it was decided to keep this one the same. However, the committee discussed having meetings at other times. Ideas were thrown out such as lunch-time meetings, speakers at meetings, incorporating with Sr. Center carry in dinner, and monthly coffees. Terri and Kari will work on ideas.

The next meeting will be Tuesday, February 7, 2012 at the Assisted Living Facility.
